

YZAN PÉREZ

Art & Communications

@yzanpm

@yzanprz

Brief biography

Yzan Pérez is a journalist and visual creator based in London. At the age of eighteen he won the Cátedra prize for his texts about drugs. At nineteen he began writing for the press and creating videos in TED. Currently, he is a communications manager and works with the urban label The Medizine.

He is known in Spain for his social criticism and his work at the entertainment industry. The newspaper Nueva Tribuna described him as brilliant and the Gabo Foundation even said that “if provocation had a name, it would be his”.

More from the author

Portfolio

On an audiovisual level, Yzan has created content for urban artists (social media, video, photography). He also worked at Warner Music Madrid and collaborated with OG Gara among others.

As a writer, he has travelled through Africa and narrated his experience (From the Sahara). He was an opinion columnist in the newspaper Público and published articles for El Generacional.

See Instagram videos

Occupation

Currently, Yzan Pérez is a communications manager. His work consists of promoting the outreach of artists and companies, managing their public image and carrying out creative projects.

He has a versatile approach. From press to social media, including visual art, radio or events. He has worked with several personalities and is now based in London focusing on entertainment industry.

Contact

For proposals, ideas or collaborations, you can contact to the mail yzanpm@gmail.com or the number +44 7587 958539.

YZAN PÉREZ
Art & Communication